#	Question
1	What conditions are left on the underwriting approval?
2	Is the approval good for $512,000 with 25.0% down on a conventional loan?
3	Are funds verified for the down payment and closing costs, plus an appraisal gap of up to $15,000?
4	Can you close by Fri Oct 30 with your current workload?

What to Confirm

Impact	Where	What to Confirm: Provide the Real Value to Sharpen the Analysis
High	Seller	Listing fee 2.5% and buyer's agent 2.5% read as separate fees (5% total). Confirm whether the 2.5% includes the buyer's agent
Med	$512K Conventional	Para. 9(c) box not given: the owner's title policy is charged to the seller by local custom. Check which box is marked; the party who designates the Closing Agent pays it
Med	$512K Conventional	Riders not listed: whether the HOA or condo rider (A or B) is attached wasn't checked. Confirm it's in the contract, with the HOA disclosure
Low	Seller	Holding cost estimated from insurance, HOA, utilities and loan interest (tax is in the proration)

Notes

- Documentary Stamp Tax on the Deed 0.70%, seller pays (Florida default)

- Property tax prorated from Jan 1 to the day before closing, allowing the 4% early-payment discount (Florida default)
- The tax proration assumes $6,900/yr paid in arrears.
- Commissions are negotiable and not set by law.
- These proceeds are before any income tax on the sale; a CPA can estimate it.
- Actual costs come from the title company's settlement statement.
- Certainty scores follow fixed rules from the offer's terms, the contract and the property; they are not a guarantee of performance.
