COMPETITIVE

The best outlook your limits allow: Competitive against two or three competing offers. FHA financing caps the score, so certainty and net do the work, not escalation.

COMPETITION	Listing agent: two or three competing offers; 9 days on market vs. a 34-day median
FINANCING	FHA · 3.5% down, per the buyer and lender
YOUR LIMITS	Max $375,000 · cash $26,000 · keep $2,000 · up to $3,200 a month

STRENGTH SCORE	SELLER NET*	WORST-CASE CASH	LEFT IN RESERVE
66/100	$333,059	$23,555	$2,445
Workable	−$3,876 vs. a clean offer at list	of $26,000 cash	floor $2,000

RECOMMENDED OFFER

TERM	OFFER	WHY
Price	$363,000 Value range $355K–$372K	Value midpoint: with 3.5% down the appraisal sets the loan, so this offer competes on terms (deposit, inspection, closing date) rather than price
Seller Concessions	$2,000	Only what your cash can't cover
Escrow Deposit	$11,000 (3.0%)	3% shows commitment; refundable during inspection; counts toward cash to close
Inspection Period	10 days	Room for a full inspection and 4-point on an older home
Loan Approval Period	30 days	Lender standard
Appraisal Gap	None	Not needed: price is inside the value range
Closing	35 days (Nov 2)	Fastest your lender can reliably close
Buyer-Broker Comp.	2.5% from seller	What the seller is offering
Home Warranty	Not requested	Not asked of the seller; keeps the net clean
Escalation	None	Not used: with low down payment, price above value gets cut by the appraisal

Your Options

Outlook with 2–3 Competing

Option	Price	Outlook	Seller Net*	Worst-Case Cash	Reserve	What Changes
Recommended	$363,000	Competitive	$333,059	$23,555	$2,445	Best outlook inside your limits
Lower-Cost	$363,000	At Risk	$328,559	$19,055	$6,945	Seller concessions $6,500; escrow deposit $7,500 (2.1%). Saves $4,500 in worst-case cash; outlook At Risk

No Stronger Option: The deposit is already $11,000 (3.0%) and an FHA gap clause earns no credit with the listing side, since the rider lets the buyer walk if the appraisal is low. Nothing stronger fits within your limits, since a higher price wouldn't rank higher with the listing agent and a smaller concession ask would break your $2,000 reserve floor (leaving $1,945).

Higher Price: A higher price, up to $365,000, is inside your limits but wouldn't improve the outlook: it would still be At Risk against two or three competing offers.

Thin cushion: this offer leaves $2,445, only $445 above your $2,000 reserve floor, so closing costs that come in high would cut into it.

Preliminary: based on limited data. Add the contract form to sharpen the recommendation; 6 inputs assumed in total, listed at the end.

Next Step: Get the insurance quote and a pre-approval letter at the offer price (not your max, so it doesn't reveal your ceiling), then submit the offer package before Fri Sep 25 · 5 PM. The worksheet with this report is for the recommended offer; it's redone if the buyer picks another option.

*Seller net before mortgage payoff, as a listing agent would calculate it. The notes at the end say what the numbers rest on. Not legal or financial advice.

Detailed Analysis

How It Stacks Up By Competition Level

If the Seller Has...	Recommended	Lower-Cost
Only Offer	Strong	Competitive
1 Competing Offer	Competitive	At Risk
2–3 Competing (Expected)	Competitive	At Risk
Cash or 4+ Competing	At Risk	Unlikely

Bands combine the strength score and the seller net vs. a clean offer at list: an estimate, not a probability.

6 · Likely Pushback

On the Recommended Offer

Term	Yours	They May Ask	Response
Price	$363,000	$365,000	Inside the value range; the appraisal won't support much more
Inspection Period	10 days	7 days	Needed for a full inspection; offer to share reports quickly

7 · Assumptions and Data to Confirm

Impact	Where	What to Confirm
High	Buyer	Contract form not chosen: planned on the FAR/BAR AS IS, the usual form for a competitive offer. If the buyer will use the Standard form, say so: its repair limits and inspection rules change the numbers
Low	Buyer	Closing costs estimated at 3% of price plus loan taxes: the Florida default plus prepaids, plus documentary stamp tax on the note at 0.35% of the loan and intangible tax on the mortgage at 0.2% of the loan
Low	Costs	Insurance: $3,400 a year is an estimate, not a quote for this address. Get a quote

Impact	Where	What to Confirm
Low	Costs	No flood insurance quote: the payment leaves it out. Flood zone X: a lender may not require flood insurance, but a Citizens policy on a home with a dwelling replacement cost of $400,000 or more must carry flood insurance, and from January 1, 2027 every Citizens policy must (s. 627.351(6)(aa)).
Low	Buyer	Expected acceptance not given: dates count from Mon Sep 28, the first business day after the offer deadline. Give the expected acceptance date if it's different
Low	Listing	Closing on Nov 2, after this year's tax bills go out on November 1, 2026: the proration assumes the seller hasn't paid the bill by then, so the seller credits the buyer from Jan 1. If the seller pays it before closing, the buyer credits the seller instead

Notes

- Listing brokerage at 2.5% of price on the seller net sheet.
- Documentary Stamp Tax on the Deed 0.70%, seller pays (Florida default).
- Owner's title policy paid by the seller (promulgated rate, Florida default).
- Title company fees $1,145 (Florida default; the title company's quote wins).
- Property tax prorated from Jan 1 to the day before closing, allowing the 4% early-payment discount (Florida default).
- Payments use a 6.5% interest rate and the property tax at the offer price.
- First year: the lender will likely set up escrow from the seller's lower tax bill, so the payment can rise when the buyer's own bill arrives. Budget for the buyer's own bill from the start.
- Payments, closing costs and loan program limits are estimates: the lender's Loan Estimate governs, and program limits change, so confirm them with the lender.
- Worst case: the appraisal comes in low and the buyer covers the gap.
- Strength scores use the same rubric as the listing-side offer review; the number and terms of other offers and the seller's priorities are unknown, and a seller may choose any offer.
- The FHA and conforming loan limits are this year's published county limits.
- Not legal or financial advice; for contract questions, consult a real estate attorney licensed in Florida.
