Check Before Relying on These Dates

- FHA/VA rider (FHA loan): the buyer isn't obligated to close if the FHA appraisal comes in below the price, and that protection runs to closing. The buyer's choice to go ahead anyway is due within 3 days after receiving the appraisal.
- Loan approval deadline is 4 days before closing: little room if financing slips.
- Counted back from closing, a date on a weekend or holiday moves to the next business day, closer to closing. To be safe: survey by Fri Oct 23, not Mon Oct 26.

How the Dates Were Computed

Term	How It Was Applied
Effective Date	Sep 25, 2026: Seller's initials on Counteroffer #1, 4:12 PM
Counting	Calendar days, starting the day after the Effective Date (Sep 25, 2026).
Weekend / Holiday End	A period ending on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday extends to the end of the next business day.
End of Day	A period runs to the end of its last day, where the property is located.
Notice Timing	The form sets no hour for the end of a day, so a deadline shown by 11:59 PM is the end of its last day. To be safe, deliver a notice due before a period ends during business hours on or before that day.
Before-Closing Dates	Counted back from closing; a weekend or holiday extends to the next business day.
Closing Date	A closing date on a weekend or holiday extends to the next business day.
Holidays	National legal holidays (5 U.S.C. 6103), including observed dates.

Computed from the executed contract, its riders and the counteroffers. Verify every date against the documents and with the escrow or title agent; the form version and any handwritten changes control. Time rules follow FAR/BAR contract definitions. Lender dates are estimates. Not legal advice.
